Thamesfield Retirement Village, nestled by Henley-on-Thames' riverbanks, features a 19th-century mansion amid three acres of lush gardens, exuding opulence. We take pride in being a small intimate community where residents partake in activities such as croquet, play readings, quizzes, films, and excursions. All our properties are conveniently accessible within the main building granting easy access to the riverfront restaurant, bar and decking area. A bridge stroll leads to Henley's historic town, and a bus outside provides access to amenities. Alternatively, an onsite restaurant is perfect for entertaining guests. Weekly services include an hour of cleaning, bed linen laundry, round-the-clock assistance, morning coffee, and afternoon tea. The village covers heating, water, and electricity costs for apartments and communal spaces, creating a convenient and luxurious retirement experience.
